

“Eight Points” 24” x 24” Acrylic Layers on Raised Panel

This painting is based on a fantastic photograph taken by Darren Barnes. I was inspired by both the monochromatic color scheme of the chilly Fall environment as well as the buck's pose looking back over his shoulder. I chose the odd placement of the buck on the far left of the panel since I knew the direction of his gaze would draw you back into the painting. Handsome thing!

“Eight Points” 24” x 24” Acrylic Layers on Raised Panel

